

Type of Road Where Crashes Involving Children Occur: 2005

More than half of crashes occurred on parking lots or roads with posted speed limits of less than 45 m.p.h.
There is a need for increased awareness that most crashes involving children occur in local communities during routine trips.